Dear Mr Garrison

I have your kind welcome note
and am glad to see
by Cecil's eyes that you are at the House of Commons
and saw Mr Bright
yesterday

I shall not be at this week end
- as I had expected

There is a difficulty and complication, as you will have heard,
and Sir Wilfrid Lawson
may perhaps have to give up his day
(the 27th) for Mr
Fry's or to help
with the Irish Sunday Closing Bill.

This will be a great sacrifice and disappointment; but it seems to be a
duty and almost a necessity. We all want the Irish
Bill carried into Law Had things been smooth - I intended to have done what to Freedom this week

as it is I hope to get up early next week.

How you are all
will need enjoying Freedom - its happiness and freedom <sup>not without freedom</sup> All you in love
repaid and love
wishes

Love myself
you find

Thos W. Benson
